20/023 JUBILEE GARDENS

The council has carefully considered the government instructions in regard to the reopening of play areas and has regrettably concluded that as the strict terms cannot be adhered to, the gardens and play court should remain closed.

It was further agreed that the grounds should have the annual ROSPA inspection carried out and that the possible replacement of the play items should be reviewed, once the inspection has been completed.

20/024 JUNE MINUTES

The minutes of the remote meeting relating to decisions made in June, dated June 12th were approved remotely.
