

MOORLAND FOOD BANK

Building food resilience across Southern Exmoor

Moorland Foodbank serves the communities of Dulverton and surrounding villages.

We work closely with community partners, including Village Agents and local schools to ensure that those in greatest need get the help that they need.

If you are struggling to make ends meet and would benefit from a food parcel to help you through a difficult time, or you are in a position to donate food, money or time to this volunteer-run local charity, please get in touch:
